THE SEARCH FOR THE MOST OUTSTANDING CLARETIAN 2006

QUALIFICATIONS:

1. All Claretian alumni who graduated from the first batch up to batch 1980 are qualified.
2. A candidate should be nominated by any Claretian alumni not necessarily coming from the same batch as that of the nominee.
3. A nominee should possess the following qualities:
 - PERSON OF GOD
An outstanding Claretian is one who puts God above all, believes in the existence and influence of the Devine Supreme Being and understands that his achievements in life are all attributed to the Almighty.
 - PERSON FOR OTHERS
An outstanding Claretian is one who lives not for himself alone but finds meaning in life through others in the community. Who makes time to attend to the needs of the underprivileged and compassionate to the plight of his neighbors being the “beacon in the darkness” for others to follow.
 - PERSON OF INTEGRITY AND MORALITY
An outstanding Claretian governs his life with moral and ethical discipline. He places a premium on honesty and above all humility never boastful of his achievements and chooses the high moral ground in dealing with ethical dilemmas.
 - PERSON WITH PASSION FOR EXCELLENCE IN HIS CAREER
An outstanding Claretian shuns mediocrity and is constantly striving to improve his craft. Self actualization is a priority for him thus the value for education and the pursuit of a life long learning is an utmost importance.
 - PERSON WITH DEEP SENSE OF COMMITMENT TO HIS ALMA MATER
An outstanding Claretian is one who never forgets his roots, from where he was molded into the well rounded, universal learner that he is. He does not only look back with gratitude but voluntarily shares his personal and professional time to get involved in his alma mater’s endeavors.
